Comrade,

REF: Representation received from Head Office Unit regarding relaxation in promotion process of JMGS – I to MMGS – II

We have received one representation from Head Office Unit regarding upcoming promotion process for the year 2019-2020. You must be aware that no relaxation has been given for the promotion from JMGS – I to MMGS – II in both Generalist and Specialist Cadre.

Please note that many Probationary Officers and Specialist Officers have joined the Bank in the year 2016 during the month of June and July. However, as per policy, cutoff date for promotion is 31st March 2016. This leads to disqualification of this entire batch from participating in this year's promotion process.

It is pertinent to mention that Bank had given 1 year relaxation in this cadre during earlier promotion processes. Even, in this year, relaxation has given in other scales too.

Hence, you are requested to take the matter at appropriate level so that our young enthusiastic officer members should get a chance to take participation in this year promotion process.

Comradely Yours,
